Saturday, February 6, sunny

This afternoon, Oliver, Yayoi, and I went to the theater to see a movie. It is a very good theater and we can watch both old and new movies there. We decided to watch a new movie called 'My School Days'. It was a story about a bad boy who became a wonderful teacher. The leading actor was very good. He was about 30 years old, but he looked like a high school student in the movie. It was not a sad movie. It was a very exciting movie and really fun. I enjoyed it very much. I thought the music was also good. Yayoi also enjoyed the movie because she liked the leading actor very much. She looked very happy. Oliver read the book 'My School Days' a year ago. He liked it very much but he didn't like the movie. He said, "The book and its movie are very different."
