2 次の1～3の問いに答えなさい。

1 次の英文の  に入る最も適切なものを、下のア～エから一つ選び、その記号を書け。

I love turtles. We can see them on the beach in my town. But many turtles die because they eat plastic bags in the sea. Why do turtles eat plastic bags? My friend says, "Turtles eat jellyfish. Plastic bags look like jellyfish." However, I found an interesting story on the Internet yesterday. It said, "There are a lot of plastic bags in the sea. Turtles eat plastic bags because of the smell. Some old plastic bags smell like turtles' food."

Is the true answer the appearance or the smell of plastic bags? I don't know. But I know that . It is also bad for the environment. We should not use plastic bags. I think this will lead to a safer life for animals in the future.

After talking with Zane, Takuya wanted to know more about him and his university life. Takuya asked, "Can I visit your university?" Zane answered, "Yes, of course. You can also meet other students from Africa. I will introduce them to you."

The next week, Takuya visited Sakura University. Zane and his friends welcomed him. At first, Takuya was very nervous, but their smiles made him happy. They talked to him about a lot of things, such as their home countries, their cultures, and their life at Sakura University. Takuya also talked about himself. He enjoyed talking with them for hours. When Takuya left, he said, "Thank you so much. Now I'm interested in your countries. I want to learn more about foreign countries. Actually, talking with new people is difficult for me, but I really enjoyed it this time." Zane said, "We also enjoyed talking with you. Thank you very much. Please come and see us again. Let's play music together next time."

Now Takuya has many foreign friends. He has learned a lot about the world. He has also heard about many problems in the world. Takuya has a dream. He will visit foreign countries and help people in need. He is studying English hard every day. In the past, he didn't like talking with new people, but he tried it and then found his future dream. So, now he thinks people should try something that is difficult for them because it can be a great chance for them to change themselves.
