3 次の英文を読んで、下の 1・2 の問いに答えなさい。

In Japan, many people have long holidays from the end of April to the first week of May. We call it 'Golden Week.' Some people don't have to work during Golden Week, so they can do the things they want. Some of them like going out during their holidays. Such people often enjoy traveling. A It is not too cold or too hot. On sunny days, everything looks beautiful. Some people even go to foreign countries. B They can enjoy different cultures. Other people don't like going out during that period. C They want to sleep for long hours or read books. They don't like to go to crowded places.

During Golden Week, Taku went to see his grandfather in a small village with his friends, Ryota and Makoto. His grandfather took them to the river near his house. The river was very clean and the mountains were green. Ryota said, "It's a very beautiful place." They enjoyed fishing there. After that, Taku's grandfather taught them how to make a fire and cook rice and fish. They were surprised because Taku's grandfather knew many things. Makoto said to Taku, "Your grandfather is really cool!" Taku was glad to hear that. They enjoyed seeing beautiful mountains and eating the rice and fish they cooked for dinner. After dinner, they went to Taku's grandfather's house and enjoyed talking. Taku's grandfather told interesting stories about the old days. They enjoyed listening to them. After that, they took a nice hot bath. They slept well that night. They had a very good time.
